University of Baltimore Law School Course Requirements For students entering prior to Fall 2015

The School of Law provides a rich range of classes in both the day and evening divisions. In addition to the core and required curriculum, we strongly recommend that you prepare for the rigors of legal practice by enrolling in as many of the “foundational courses” listed below as possible. Taking advantage of the curricular opportunities here requires planning on your part that should begin early in the second semester of your first year, when you will be selecting courses for the first semester of your second year. Please see an advisor in the Office of Academic Affairs to explore your scheduling options.
