This course will consider the role of lawyers as leaders in various settings, including law firms; non-profit and for-profit corporations; legislatures; government agencies; bar associations; civic groups; and social movements. Drawing on case studies, including UB law alumni, the class will explore the attributes of successful leaders in the law and seek to identify the tangible and intangible skills law students should seek to develop as they prepare to assume leadership roles in the legal profession. Pre-requisites: First year day courses

Course Description: This upper-level course is to assist students in further developing the fundamental lawyering skills necessary for success on the bar exam and as lawyers. Using the Multistate Performance Test, students will hone their critical reading and legal analysis skills and will also further develop their ability to organize and manage a research and writing task. Students will deconstruct statutes and common law rules into elements, summarize and synthesize case law, and identify legally relevant facts from a case file to arrive at a sound legal conclusion. Pre-requisite: First year day courses.

Participation in the Externship Program requires successful completion of instruction equivalent to 28 credit hours. Students must submit a completed legal externship application available at http://law.ubalt.edu/template.cfm?page=400. Applications should be sent to Neha Lall, Director of Externships at nlall@ubalt.edu. Placements will not be approved without the application.

This course has the following special time limits on when a student may withdraw. A student is permitted to withdraw from this course only until the end of the first week of classes in the semester. A student who withdraws from the course after the end of the first week of classes will receive a grade of WF in the course.
