IMPORTANT DATES AND INFORMATION:

- (1) This application must be submitted either via email by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 10, 2017. Email applications to: lawclinic@ubalt.edu. Late applications will be considered only after applications submitted on time have been considered.
- (2) Please note if you list a Clinic as a 1st choice and have not satisfied the prerequisites or indicated above that you will take the course concurrently, you will automatically be put in the lottery for your 2nd choice (if you have satisfied that Clinic's co and/or pre-requisites).
- (3) It is a violation of the Honor Code to inaccurately indicate that you will have successfully taken a course by next semester or plan to take a course concurrently next semester.
- (4) Students accepted into the Clinic will be notified via email by the end of the day on Friday, March 17, 2017. Criminal Practice Clinic students will be contacted directly by faculty after the lottery.
- (4) A lottery is used for the selection of students in most clinics due to the limited class sizes and number of students who apply. Priority in enrollment is based on the following criteria:
 1. Application submitted on time.
 2. Students who have not previously taken a clinic.
 3. Date of graduation. Students who are closest to graduation will be given priority.

Please consult the University of Baltimore Clinic and Internship Selection Policies and Procedures for more information.
