Bar Q&A

- Do I have to take “bar-tested” courses?
- Should I try to complete a concentration?
- What concentrations are available to us as evening students?
About the Clinical Program

Enrollment in Clinics is through the Clinic Lottery Process

See Clinic FAQ’s on Clinic page of website

Quick answers:

Are clinics available to evening students?

Yes. The Clinic lottery system does not distinguish between day and evening students. Evening students can and do take clinics.

Are there clinics that can accommodate the typical schedules of evening students?

Yes. A number of clinics are particularly appropriate for evening students: Appellate Practice Clinic; Community Development Clinic*; Family Mediation Clinic; and Innocence Project Clinic.

* Note: Community Dev Clinic is not offered in the evening in Fall 2011
General Guidelines

• Come see an advisor

• Read the catalog/website for rules

• Look for opportunities to develop your writing skills

• Fulfill your required and foundational courses first

• Take courses that will develop your passion for the law (or help you figure it out)

• Plan now for taking the bar exam
