Furthering and Supporting Commitment to Public Interest Law in the Twenty-First Century

A. Introduction

The Samuel I. "Sandy" Rosenberg Scholarship, an award of $1,500.00, was developed to assist a recent University of Baltimore law graduate who has shown a strong commitment to pursuing a career in public service.

B. Who May Apply

Third-year students and recent graduates (less than one year) that have secured a post-graduate public service position.

C. Selection Process

1. Applicants must have a demonstrated commitment to public service, as evidenced by previous work or volunteer efforts, community service and/or other relevant experience.

2. Applications are reviewed by the University of Baltimore School of Law Sub-Committee on Loan Assistance and Repayment. A recipient will be selected by the end of March 2011.

D. How to Apply

Submit the following materials to the Law Career Development Office no later than 4:00 p.m., Thursday, February 17, 2011:

1. Completed University of Baltimore Samuel I. “Sandy” Rosenberg Scholarship Application Form, including the signed and dated Certification page (form is attached).

2. Brief description of the applicant’s financial circumstances. Although financial need will not be dispositive, it will be considered along with other factors.

4. Essay of no more than 250 words, detailing the applicant’s background in public service issues, and how their chosen career path will contribute to the public interest.
