

APPLYING FEMINISM GLOBALLY

Featuring Author and Nobel Laureate Toni Morrison

The University of Baltimore School of Law and its Center on Applied Feminism will present the fourth annual feminist legal theory conference, Applying Feminism Globally, on March 30 – 31, 2011. The conference will focus on the creation and impact of feminist legal theory within a global context. Panel discussions will center on global perspectives on women's health, women's work and socioeconomic rights in a global economy, women in combat and conflict, and feminist activism around the world.

The School of Law is honored to welcome Nobel Prize-winning author Toni Morrison to Baltimore as part of the 2011 feminist legal theory conference.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 2011

12 – 5 pm

Spotlight UB Film Presentation

The Center on Applied Feminism, in collaboration with the Spotlight UB series, is pleased to present two films to kick off the 2011 feminist legal theory conference.

These screenings, which will be held in the University of Baltimore Student Center Performing Arts Theater (21 W. Mt. Royal Ave., fifth floor, Baltimore, MD 21201), are free and open to the public. No RSVP is required.

12 – 3 pm

Beloved (1998)

An adaptation of Toni Morrison's 1987 novel, directed by Jonathan Demme and starring Danny Glover, Oprah Winfrey and Thandie Newton.

4 – 5 pm

Constitute! (2010)

As recently as 1981, Canadian women and other activists were mounting a grassroots fight for stronger equality provisions in their nation's constitution. This film, directed by Susan Bazilli and Robert Roonery, documents the success of that movement.

3 – 5 pm

Limited Registration

Conference attendees who have pre-registered for the conference workshop or who will be attending the keynote presentation can check in on the fifth floor of the University of Baltimore Student Center (21 W. Mt. Royal, Baltimore, MD 21201).
