EMPLOYER AFFIRMATION OF WRITTEN WORK PRODUCT

We, the undersigned supervising attorney and the undersigned student intern, hereby affirm that the student intern produced ___ pages of substantive legal writing during the course of their work this semester. Substantive legal writing means that students must use their own legal analysis and knowledge to complete written materials; this does not include the completion of legal forms using boilerplate language or factual accounts which do not require any legal analysis.

____________________________
Supervising Attorney

____________________________
Student Intern

Printed name and title__________________________________________

______________________________  ________________
Supervising Attorney  Date

Printed name and semester_______________________________________