Upcoming Career Fairs

UB/UM 2011 Public Service Career Fair
On Thursday, February 17th, from 3 to 5:30pm, University of Maryland will be hosting the 2011 Public Service Career Fair, cosponsored by the University of Baltimore. Students will be able to participate in “table talk” with public interest employers about internship and employment opportunities. These employers are accepting applications for summer and/or fall internships. This is an opportunity not to be missed. The fair takes place at the University of Maryland School of Law, Westminster Hall, 519 W. Fayette St., Baltimore, MD, just a short and easy light rail ride away from UB. Pre-registration is not required. Please find a list of some employers planning to attend on page 2. (Please note this list is not exhaustive; a final list will be provided closer to the fair date.)

MCC Career Fair 2011
On Friday, February 18th, from 10am to 3:30pm, the Maryland Career Consortium (MCC) will be hosting the area’s largest career fair at Loyola University. Over 120 employers from various industries including the government, private and non-profit sectors will be in attendance recruiting for non-legal positions. Registered employers include Baltimore Orioles, CareFirst BlueCross/BlueShield, Micros Systems, Morgan Stanley, Pepco, Pepsi Beverages Company, T. Rowe Price, Travelers, Verizon Wireless, and dozens of federal agencies. Find a complete list of employers here. For more information, go to the MCC Career Fair website.

2011 Target Summer Program (TSP)
Have you secured or are you looking to secure a position in one of the following cities: New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington (DE), Chicago, Miami, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, or, in select cases, Washington, D.C.? If so, you may be eligible for some financial support. The Law School in conjunction with the LCDO has a limited amount of financial support available to qualifying candidates. This is one time assistance and is not an annual program. In order to be considered, students must secure a prestigious full-time, unpaid summer position in a target market (cities previously mentioned). This program is open to current 1Ls and 2Ls. If interested, please send: 1. Brief statement of interest (no longer than 250 words) describing your interest in the position and location; 2. Resume; 3. Transcript; 4. Information on your 2011 secured summer position and the organization; and 5. Proof of position offer. Please submit all materials to Astrid Schmidt, Assistant Dean of the LCDO, via e-mail at aschmidt@ubalt.edu or hard copy, by 5pm on Tuesday, February 22nd.

The Samuel I. “Sandy” Rosenberg Scholarship Applications Due
An award of $1,500 is available to students graduating this May who have demonstrated interest in public service and plan to pursue a career in the public sector upon graduation. Applications for this scholarship are due February 17th. Click here to download the application.

The Baltimore Women’s Bar Association (BWBA) Resume and Interviewing Workshop
The BWBA is hosting a resume and interviewing workshop for the law student WBA chapters at the University of Maryland School of Law and University of Baltimore School of Law. The event will be held on Wednesday, February 23rd, from 6-8pm at the University of Maryland School of Law. A wine and cheese reception will follow the panel discussion and workshop. For more information contact Rachel Tafaro at rachel.tafaro@gmail.com.

5th Annual Muslim Law Conference and Career Fair
The National Muslim Law Student Association (NMLSA) and the Muslim Law Students Association at Penn Law will be hosting their annual Muslim Law conference at the University of Pennsylvania Law School on February 26th. The theme of this year’s conference is Constructive Roles for Islamic Law in Western Society, featuring three guest speakers from academia, discussing various contributions Islamic Law can make in Western Society. For more information go to the Conference website.
