Straight Talk on Getting a Job with the DOJ
Today, April 12th, from 12-1pm in the Moot Court Room, representatives from the DOJ will provide “Straight Talk” on getting internships and jobs with the DOJ. Jamila Frone, the Deputy Director of Legal Recruitment and Outreach, and Richard Parker, an attorney in the Appellate Litigation Section of the Tax Division, will offer you the inside scoop on the DOJ hiring process. Topics to be covered include:

• Why you should consider the DOJ;
• Effective strategies for on-line applications;
• Factors to consider when ranking your division preferences for the Honors Program;
• How to write winning essays;
• What qualities the DOJ recruiters look for when hiring interns and attorneys; and
• What you can do to stand out.

The application period for both the 2012 Summer Law Intern Program (for current 1Ls) and the Attorney General’s Honors Program (for current 2Ls as well as 3Ls doing a judicial clerkship next year) is July 25th to September 6th. The Honors Program is the only way the DOJ hires entry level attorneys. This is your chance to learn directly from DOJ attorneys how to maximize your chances of getting a position before the application deadline! Pizza will be served. Bring your own beverage.
