Announcements

Journal Information Sessions
Write on to a journal - not only will you become a master of the Bluebook, you will hone your writing skills while satisfying an upper-level writing requirement. Many students will even have the opportunity to publish an original piece. Legal employers highly value journal experience as it demonstrates strong research and writing skills. In fact, some prospective employers will only interview students who are members of a journal. To learn more about the write-on process, please attend the upcoming Journal Information Sessions on Tuesday, April 5th at 12pm in the Moot Court Room and 5pm in BC003. You will meet current journal members, learn about each journal’s eligibility requirements, and gain a better understanding of how the write-on process works. Contact Annie Vanselow at annie.vanselow@ubalt.edu if you have any questions.
