LCDO Announcements

Summer Internship Opportunities

It is not too late to find a great full or part-time summer internship. Every day, employers contact the LCDO looking for summer interns. If you have not yet secured a legal position for this summer, go to Symplicity and PSLawNet.org to find late openings.

Thinking About a Fall Internship?

Federal government agencies and some public interest organizations are already beginning to hire for the fall semester. Find opportunities on Symplicity, PSLawNet.org, and in the Government Honors and Internship Handbook (Login and password: pecan/sandies).

Get Ready for the Fall Recruiting Season!

Fall OCI and Resume Collection:

Rising 2Ls and 3Ls who plan to participate in the LCDO's Fall Recruitment Program must schedule an appointment with by June 15th to have their resume reviewed and approved.

Federal Government Recruiting:

Application deadlines for federal government summer 2012 internships and entry-level honors programs are in the late summer/early fall.

Judicial Clerkship Applications:

Judges will begin hiring their judicial clerks in the early fall.
