COURSE INFORMATION AND SYLLABUS

Meeting Times: Wednesdays and Fridays: 10:30 pm - 11:45pm

Location: Room assignments are available through MyUB.

Class Attendance, Preparation, and Participation: You are required to attend class regularly and be prepared for class; adequate class attendance, preparation, and participation are also essential if you wish to understand the material.

To conform with ABA and law school guidelines, you are entitled to 5 absences per semester. A student with more than 5 unexcused absences will not be permitted to take the final.

Unless told otherwise, for each class, you are responsible for: 1) any unfinished material from the preceding assignment: PLUS 2) the assignment following the one discussed in the preceding class. If you miss a class, you must obtain the class notes from the missed class before attending the next class.

Class participation is an essential part of process of becoming a lawyer. All students are expected to be prepared to participate in each class session, as I will call on students randomly and solicit volunteers. If you are not prepared to discuss the day's reading and the questions for the day’s assignment, please give me a note prior to class. This will avoid embarrassment for both of us.

You must prepare written answers to the questions in the syllabus which accompany each assignment. Details on how your answers will be handed in will be provided in class.

Use of the Internet during class (This is huge.)
Repeated studies, as well as my own experience, prove that using the Internet or texting during class lowers class performance and exam grades. The fact that this may not have occurred in college for you is not relevant at all. I will ask you all to turn off your access to wireless Internet and put away your cell phone before the start of class. We will discuss this more on the first day. Suffice to say- texting or internet use during class will be prima facie evidence of unsatisfactory class participation.

I reserve the right to decrease a grade for unsatisfactory class participation or preparation.
Materials
This packet contains most of the cases we will be reading this semester. Additional readings may be distributed throughout the semester.

Some students have found certain supplemental books to be useful. In particular, students have found the following hornbooks or treatises helpful both in preparing for class and for exams: Farnsworth, Contracts (4th ed in paper, 2004), Murray on Contracts (5th ed. 2011), and Calamari and Perillo Hornbook on Contracts (7th ed. 2014), Brian A. Blum, Examples & Explanations: Contracts (6th ed. 2013)

In contrast to the above books, students have found that the commercial outlines and bar review texts can be detrimental to their performance on exams. These outlines generally focus on material that I consider irrelevant and are sometimes simply incorrect.

Course Website
This course has a TWEN page that links to this syllabus, announcements, the class assignments, and other class materials. You are responsible for self-enrolling in the TWEN page and for checking it regularly for course information.

Grading
Your grade will be determined as followed:
10%: Homework [We will discuss this in class]
10%: One-hour closed-book midterm examination
80%: Three-hour, closed-book final examination.

As stated above, I reserve the right to lower grades for inadequate class attendance, preparation, and participation.

Course Expectations
American Bar Association Standards for Law Schools establish guidelines for the amount of work students should expect to complete for each credit earned. Students should expect approximately one hour of classroom instruction and two hours of out-of-class work for each credit earned in a class in order to obtain a minimum passing grade. Far more time is needed for a good or excellent grade.

You are also expected to complete all reading and written assignments before class, to participate consistently in class discussion, to work collaboratively on all group assignments, and to be able to demonstrate that you have read and reflected on the issues raised in each assignment.
Student Learning Outcomes
Students will learn the rules of offer, acceptance and consideration; they will learn how to structure legal arguments in a logical sequence; they will learn how to be precise with legal language; and they will learn how to apply the concept of “objective intent.” They will also learn how to work collaboratively to solve legal problems.

If the University is open, students should presume that classes are running on the normal schedule.

Academic Integrity:
Students are obligated to refrain from acts that they know or, under the circumstances, have reason to know will impair the academic integrity of the University and/or School of Law. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, misuse of materials, inappropriate communication about exams, use of unauthorized materials and technology, misrepresentation of any academic matter, including attendance, and impeding the Honor Code process. The School of Law Honor Code and information about the process is available at http://law.ubalt.edu/academics/policiesandprocedures/honor_code/.

Title IX requires that faculty, student employees and staff members report to the university any known, learned or rumored incidents of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking on the basis of sex, dating/intimate partner violence or sexual exploitation and/or related experiences or incidents.
