1st Class Assignment Due Monday May 14th —

Students must complete the following reading and journal assignment prior to the first class. All reading materials are posted on TWEN.

Reading: Read the syllabus and review the Learning Contract.
Learning from Experience, Ch. 1
Complete the Skills Self-Assessment and bring to individual meeting.

Journal Due Monday May 14th: Draft a goals memo to your judge and faculty supervisor. This is a statement of the goals you are undertaking in the externship and ideas on how you plan to accomplish the goals. Consider what is most important to you in the experience, plot a tentative course to achieve the goals, and use this exercise to help facilitate a conversation with your supervising attorney about your goals. For each goal, list an experience or observation that you think would help in attaining that goal.
