TEACHING EXPERIENCE

UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE SCHOOL OF LAW, Baltimore, MD

Associate Professor and Director of Immigrant Rights Clinic, August 2012—present

- Direct, teach and supervise in the Immigrant Rights Clinic, an in-house live-client one-semester clinic providing immigration services ranging from removal defense to affirmative asylum and special immigrant juvenile applications, and collaborating on issues related to systemic law reform, to improve the procedures and laws of particular concern to clients in Baltimore and Maryland.
- Teach other classes, including Refugee and Asylum Law (Spring 2014), Professional Responsibility (Spring 2015, Spring 2016, and planned for Spring 2017), Immigration Law (Fall 2016, Fall 2017, Spring and Fall 2019); supervise independent studies and student journal notes.
- Faculty Advisor for Immigration Law Association (2012-present), Parents in Law School (2017-present) and Latin American Law Students Association (2015-2016).
- Serve on admissions, appointments, curriculum and other committees.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF LAW, Washington, DC

Practitioner-in-Residence, July 2009—June 2012

- Taught and supervised in the Immigrant Justice Clinic (formerly part of the International Human Rights Law Clinic), an in-house clinic for 16 student attorneys focusing on immigration and immigrants' rights cases and policy work, including such matters as removal defense, asylum, racial profiling by police, federal tort claims, discrimination in public education, workers' rights, and human trafficking cases. Cases were brought before state, federal and administrative courts, as well as international bodies, and involved multiple forms of legal advocacy.
- Taught Immigration and Naturalization Law (large survey course) in Fall 2011 and Spring 2012.
- Taught Advanced Immigration: Ethics and Reform (seminar) in Spring 2010.
- Co-coordinated the ongoing Mid-Atlantic Clinical Scholarship Workshop series (August 2010 through June 2012).

PRIOR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

WEAVE (WOMEN EMPOWERED AGAINST VIOLENCE), Washington, DC

Supervising Attorney, March 2008—May 2009; Staff Attorney, June 2007—March 2008

- Built program for serving immigrant domestic violence survivors in the Washington metropolitan area by creating and leading community trainings in Spanish and English, leading immigrant-related advocacy work, and supervising staff, intern and pro bono casework.
- Represented immigrant survivors of domestic violence in their immigration cases, including VAWA petitions, U visas, T visas and Asylum cases; represented immigrant clients in family law matters, such as civil protection orders, custody and divorce.
- Trained and provided technical assistance to pro bono and legal service attorneys on immigration and family law matters related to domestic violence.

CASA OF MARYLAND, Silver Spring, MD
