FIRST CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

Before the first class, please 1) register for Westalw and add Dillard Crim Law/ILS to your courses on TWEN; 2) complete the student information sheet and return it to Professor Dillard at adillard@ubalt.edu; and watch 12 Angry Men, available on DVD in the law library, on YouTube at https://youtu.be/mzjpJ1J-oQo, and streaming on Amazon Prime (1997 version).

The reading assignments, the Youtube link, and the student information sheet are available on TWEN, and they are included here for your convenience.

Please prepare the following for the first class on Monday, 8-17-15 at 9:00 a.m. --

Moskovitz: Mental States and Mistake; Theories of Punishment, pp. 34-35

Neumann: Rules of Law, Chs. 1, 2, 3

Theories of Punishment: Tools of Criminal Law [TWEN]

Kristin Henning, Teaching Fiction?: The Wire as a Pedagogical Tool in the Examination of Punishment Theory [TWEN]

Mark Herrmann, This Is What I’m Thinking [TWEN]

Alex Kosinski, Criminal Law 2.0 [TWEN]

Watch 12 Angry Men

Vehicles in the Park exercise [TWEN]