Grading, Class Participation Computers and Final Examination

Ninety percent of the final grade will be based on a final examination and ten percent will be based on class participation. Class participation includes discussions of the assigned reading materials (including the Internal Revenue Code and regulations) and participation in the resolution of problems at the end of each subchapter. Meaningful participation is difficult without regular attendance.

Students may use laptop computers for class related purposes. If students elect to use a computer for the final examination, designated software must be used to temporarily disable most computer functions and convert the laptop into a basic word processor.

A three hour examination will include a combination of multiple choice, fill in the blank and essay questions. The Internal Revenue Code and regulations (single volume Lathrope edition) may be used. Other materials will not be permitted.

Attendance Policy for J.D. Students

Class attendance is a primary obligation of each J.D. student whose right to continued enrollment in the course and to take the examination is conditioned upon a record of attendance satisfactory to the professor. A J.D. student who exceeds the maximum allowable absences may be compelled to withdraw from the course, or may be barred from sitting for the final exam. J.D. students who are forced to withdraw for exceeding the allowed absences should receive a grade of WA (withdrawal due to excessive absences), unless the faculty member believes that a grade of WF is warranted. In this course, J.D. students are allowed a maximum of two absences. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class.

While LL.M. and M.S. students should endeavor to attend each class, there is no attendance policy applying to these students.
Class Cancellation

If there is inclement weather, students should visit the University of Baltimore webpage or call the University’s Snow Closing Line at (410) 837-4201. Absent a University closing, students should presume that classes are running on the normal schedule. Cancelations for any other reason are unlikely, but would be accompanied by email notices to students and a notice posted on the classroom door.

Disability Policy

If you are a student with a documented disability who requires an academic accommodation, please contact Leslie Metzger, Director for Student Support in the Office of Academic Affairs at 410-516-5623 or via email at lmetzger@ubalt.edu.

Academic Integrity:

Students are obligated to refrain from acts that they know or, under the circumstances, have reason to know will impair the academic integrity of the University and/or the School of Law. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: cheating; plagiarism; misuse of library materials; use of another’s book or study materials without consent; unapproved multiple submissions; material misrepresentation of one’s academic history or standing; misrepresentation of any academic matter; intentionally giving another student false or inaccurate information about class requirements; inappropriate discussion of exams; and misrepresenting or falsifying class attendance reports.

First Class Assignment:

Chapters one and two will be discussed during the first class. Skim sub-chapters 1A, 1B, 1C, 1D and 1F. Read chapter 2, I.R.C. § 61 and Treas. Reg. §§ 1.61-1, -2(a)(1), -2(d)(1) and -14(a). Be prepared to discuss the following problems:
