*Bar Diagnostic Requirement - Online 2 hour and 12 minute, 66-question multiple choice exam. The diagnostic will open on May 11 for one week. You may self-schedule during that time.

Deferral requests will be accepted during the published deferral period only. Date to be announced later in the semester. Please note that, with the exception of an emergency deferral during the exam period, there are only three reasons that a deferral will be considered: (1) Two examinations at the same time. If two exams are scheduled at the same time on the same day, the exam in the required course must be taken at the scheduled time and the other deferred. If both are electives, one must be taken at the scheduled time. (2) Two exams that start closer than 24 hours apart (Exams that start 9am and 9am for example do NOT meet this requirement -example: one exam at 9am and one at 6pm on the same day or one exam at 6pm and one the next day at 1pm.) If two exams are scheduled within 24 hours, the exam in the required course must be taken and the other deferred. If both are electives, one must be taken at the scheduled time. (3) Religious reason supported by letter from the appropriate religious leader. A new letter must be submitted each semester.
