Course Description:

Under the supervision of a practicing attorney and faculty supervisor, students learn about the lawyering process first hand by interning in the private or public sector and attending a classroom component. Students develop reflective learning and problem-solving skills, increase their substantive legal knowledge, explore issues of professionalism and ethics, and gain a deeper understanding of the legal system and the practice of law.

Course Materials and Submissions:

This course has a TWEN page that links to this syllabus, announcements, the class assignments, and other class materials. You are responsible for self-enrolling in the TWEN page and for checking it regularly for course information.)

We will use Westlaw's TWEN system as our primary out-of-class communication. The syllabus for the course, additional reading assignments and other important information will be posted on TWEN. All assignments are to be submitted through the TWEN assignment box. Your name should be included at the top of all materials submitted and the document you submit should include your last name as well (e.g. Jones_Assignment 1). Please check TWEN weekly so you are knowledgeable of all matters affecting this course.

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the end of this class, students will be proficient in their ability to:

1. Build communication skills both orally and in writing
2. Develop range of skills necessary to be successful in the legal profession

3. Understand the importance of professionalism in the legal profession
4. Utilize experiential learning tools to establish professional and personal goals

Course Expectations and Grading Rubric:

Field placement (including completion of 130 hour requirement and timesheets) 40%

Class Participation and Reading (including one-on-one meeting with professor and Final Presentation) 30%

Journals 20%

Written Work Product 10%

Field Placement - 40%

During the semester, each student must complete 130 hours in the placement for three credits. Students are encouraged to work in large blocks of time, and are encouraged to be physically present at the field placement site at least two different days each week. Travel and meal time do not count. Placements may not bill for your time and you may not receive monetary compensation for your work.

Attendance, Participation and Readings - 30%

This class is most valuable if everyone participates in the discussion. As such, you are required to attend each class and should contact the instructor in advance if you need to miss a class or if you will be late. In your placement, you will have access to confidential and privileged information and materials. The rules of Professional Responsibility bar you from revealing confidential or privileged information. During class do not discuss any privileged or confidential information. That said, this will not prohibit you from a full and rich discussion in class – during our first class we will discuss how to honor these requirements.

Additional Requirements include:

- Learning Agreement: The Learning Agreement must be completed and signed by you and your supervising attorney and is due no later than Friday, January 31, 2020.
- Individual Meetings with Instructor: You are required to have two individual meetings with the professor during the course of the semester. Sign-up sheets will be made available.
- Mid-term Self-Assessment: You must complete a mid-term self-assessment and review it with your supervising attorney. You and your supervisor should review your learning agreement and discuss your progress towards your learning goals. Your signed mid-term self-assessments are due no later than Friday, Feb. 28, 2020.
- Supervisor Evaluation: Field placement supervisors must complete an evaluation of the student's performance in the field placement. Supervisor evaluations are due on Friday, April 24, 2020.
- Evaluations: It is a requirement of this course that students complete (1) a Course Evaluation and (2) a field placement evaluation. Evaluations will due Friday, April 24, 2020.
 - The Course Evaluation will be available later in the semester and is entirely anonymous. Faculty members will not have access to the feedback provided on course evaluations until after all grades are submitted.
 - The Field Placement Evaluation will be visible to the faculty member and/or the Director of Externships but will be confidential from the field placement supervisor.

Journal Assignments - 20%

Purpose: Each of you will keep a weekly journal in which you discuss the progress of your externship and reflect on what you are learning in your externship or in class, whether about substantive law, lawyers, legal institutions or yourself. Critical reflection is an essential part of learning from experience, and the act of writing about your experiences should help you organize and clarify your thoughts and feelings about your externship. The journals also provide insight for discussion about the demands and constraints of the roles of lawyers and judges, which is a major focus of the course. Finally, your journals will serve as a mode of communication that will help your professor understand the work you are doing and the experiences you are engaging in at externship.

Content: Prompts will be provided for your journal entries via TWEN. As a general matter, your journal should focus on what you are thinking and feeling about your experiences. What is exciting or surprising? What is bothering you – is there a problem you are struggling with? What are your questions or insights about lawyering? What criticism or praise do you have for the legal system? What else interests you or is important to you? What else would you like to be taking place in your experience?

Confidentiality: Please be careful when writing your journals not to disclose any client confidences. If you have a question about whether it is appropriate to include a particular item, ask your supervisor or ask your professor. If you err, you must err on the side of non-disclosure.

Due Date/Length/Formatting: Journal topics we will be posted weekly on TWEN. Length should be between one to two typed, double-spaced pages. The text should be in Times New Roman, Size 12 font with 1” margins. Journal entries should be submitted along with your timesheet for the prior week with a brief description of your activities. Journals and timesheets are generally due on Mondays by 10 AM and should be submitted via the TWEN assignment box. Please see TWEN for a sample prompt for formatting.

Grading Note: While journal entries are graded for completion, the instructor reserves the right to not afford full credit to any submissions that not comport with the requirements set out in within the assignment. Unexcused late journal submissions will not receive any credit.

Timesheets: Students must complete a weekly time sheet which is available on TWEN. The time sheet should include hours worked at the externship site and a brief description of the major areas in which you worked. Your total weekly hours must be submitted along with your journal submission on a weekly basis via TWEN. Keep a cumulative list of your time so you may easily tabulate your total hours at the conclusion of the semester. Your cumulative total time is due no later than Friday, May 15, 2020. Please note that time spent writing your journal entries does not apply to your field work requirement.

Written Work Product - 10%

At the end of your placement, you must submit a total of 10 pages of written work product (e.g., memoranda, pleadings, motion papers, interview notes, trial notebook), which represents the array of work that you have performed and skills that you have developed during your placement. The page requirement need not be one document and can be a series of smaller writing assignments. If your work is almost entirely confidential and/or your placement does not allow your submission, you and your supervising attorney may complete and submit the Affirmation of Work Product form which is available on TWEN. Your written work product is due no later than Friday, May 15, 2020

Attendance Policy:

Class attendance is a primary obligation of each student whose right to continued enrollment in the course and to take the examination is conditioned upon a record of attendance satisfactory to the professor. Students are required to sign in at the beginning of class. Late arrival is unprofessional and disruptive to the entire class. The professor reserves the right to mark a student absent if s/he is late to class. A student who exceeds the maximum allowed absences (generally 20% of class sessions) as illustrated below may be compelled to withdraw from the course or may be barred from sitting for the final exam. Students who are forced to withdraw for exceeding the allowed absences may receive a grade of FA (failure due to excessive absence). This policy is consistent with American Bar Association Standards for Law Schools.

Course Text Book:

No text book required for this course. Many reading materials will be pulled from Learning from Practice: A Text for Experiential Legal Education. If reading is required from this book, excerpts will be posted to TWEN.

Otherwise, for additional reading on the benefits of experiential legal education and self-reflection, the following text is recommended and available at the bookstore:

Learning from Practice: A Text for Experiential Legal Education, 3rd Edition, edited by Leah Wortham, Alexander Scherr, Nancy Maurer and Susan L. Brooks.

Computers:

Students are permitted to use laptop computers during class time for class-related purposes only. The instructor reserves the right to prohibit use of laptop computers at any time and for any reason.

Class Cancellation:

If the instructor must cancel a class, notices will be sent to students via email. If there is inclement weather, students should visit the University of Baltimore web site or call the University's Snow Closing Line at (410) 837-4201. If the University is open, students should presume that classes are running on the normal schedule.

Academic Integrity:

Students are obligated to refrain from acts that they know or, under the circumstances, have reason to know will impair the academic integrity of the University and/or School of Law. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, misuse of materials, inappropriate communication about exams, use of unauthorized materials and technology, misrepresentation of any academic matter, including attendance, and impeding the Honor Code process. The School of Law Honor Code and information about the process is available here.

Title IX Sexual Misconduct and Nondiscrimination Policy:

The University of Baltimore's Sexual Misconduct and Nondiscrimination policy is compliant with Federal laws prohibiting discrimination. Title IX requires that faculty, student employees and staff members report to the university any known, learned or rumored incidents of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking on the basis of sex, dating/intimate partner violence or sexual exploitation and/or related experiences or incidents. Policies and procedures related to Title IX and UB's nondiscrimination policies are available here.

Disability Policy:

If you are a student with a documented disability who requires an accommodation for academic programs, exams, or access to the University's facilities, please contact the Office of Academic Affairs, at ublacadaff@ubalt.edu or (410) 837-4468.
