Failure to disclose fully the information requested in this section can lead to consequences far more serious than the act or event itself. Vague, superficial, or untruthful answers, or failure to inform the Office of Law Admissions of any changes in your answers, may result in the revocation of admission, disciplinary action by the School of Law, or denial of admission to the bar. If you answer yes to any of these questions, explain fully and in detail on a separate sheet. The personal statement may not be used to answer these questions.

Have you ever been dropped, suspended, warned, placed on academic or disciplinary probation, disciplined, expelled, or requested or advised to resign from any postsecondary school, college, university, professional school, or law school?

Have you ever been charged with a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, for which the charges have not been expunged? (In Maryland, expungement is not automatic. It requires the filing of a petition with the Court. A result of a Probation Before Judgment in a Maryland Court must be reported unless the charge was expunged.)

If yes, explain fully on a separate sheet or electronic attachment, specifying the nature of the offense(s), date the offense(s) occurred, name and locality of the court(s), and the sentence(s) imposed.

Have you ever been or are you now party to a civil suit in which you were the defendant? If yes, are there any judgments against you that are pending or have been satisfied? If yes, explain fully on a separate sheet or electronic attachment.

Have you ever been discharged from employment/the armed forces under conditions other than honorable? Have you ever been the subject of disciplinary action taken by a bar association or any comparable lawyers' association of any state or country?

“The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act requires that colleges and universities publish and distribute an annual security report. This report includes campus crime statistics for the previous three years, policy statements concerning crime reporting, access to campus facilities, enforcement and arrest authority of campus police, crime prevention and procedures to be followed in sexual assault offenses. The Act also provides for timely notice to the campus of crimes considered serious and continuous threats to safety; and emergency response procedures. Also the Act requires the maintenance of a public crime log of all reported crimes. You may view and download this document by visiting www.ubalt.edu/ubpolice . You may also obtain a paper copy of the report at the UB Police Department in CR - 200.”
